Updates:

1. QM Department: Paul has been making copious amounts of musket woodsLight Infantry: No updates, will aim to have a Zoom meeting this week
2. Grenadiers: No updates, will aim to have another Zoom meeting. Rob and Anthony have been doing virtual school meetings.
3. Battalion: No updates, are working on new accurate songs for marching and/or campfire
4. Music: No new updates
5. No news on services for George Ames.
6. Suggestion from Bob: When we get back together, maybe there is some drill the Regiment can do at events and visits. Something about 5-10 minutes and period-accurate. Jeff, Ken, and Bernie will do research on the subject.
7. Anthony: Nothing new with regards to the Gillette event yet. Possible event at a Patriots or Revolution game at Gillette. Will wait for further details on the event.
8. There is no official word on other events for the rest of the 2020 season. The Regiment will be updated as decisions are made..
9. COVID-19 safety at future events: Depending on if/when the season resumes, we will review and decide the best decision for the safety of the Regiment. Discuss ideas to ease back into the season with spacing during drill.

For the last point, members will be asked to send to Maj. Graves (OFF-LIST, adjutant@redcoat.org) any of their concerns and or suggestions regarding our returning to the field yet this year.
