BATTLE OF WHITE PLAINS

23 – 25 OCTOBER

The Regiment will appear under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Michael Graves for the 250th Anniversary of the Battle of White Plains encampment weekend at Ward Pound Ridge Reservation in Pound Ridge, NY on Friday 23 October through Sunday 25 October.

Uniform is No. 2 (company uniforms with haversacks, canteens) It may be cold, so be sure to pack wool leggings in addition to your short gaiters. Since there will be firing, muskets must be equipped with flints and hammerstalls. Line and Staff officers may wear shoes with gaiters in lieu of boots. Companies should bring caps, hats, and forage caps. Military courtesies and correct 18th Century attire, free of anachronisms, are expected during all public hours.

Travel is by private vehicle; carpooling is encouraged. The entrance to Ward Pound Ridge Reservation is located at the intersection of Reservation Rd and Old Post Rod, Pound Ridge, NY. If you need a physical address, the abutting property is 9 Old Post Rd, Pound Ridge, NY. The most direct way to get there is to follow I-84 West until NY-121 South (exit 69) and Reservation Rd will be about 11 miles south and on the left.

The check-in station will be located at the Guard House as you enter the site along Reservation Rd. There is on-site parking and overflow lots are available off-site. There are shuttles for those that need to park off-site.
